Larr.....

Dear Mr Campbell

I'm not at all impressed with your law suite or your strong arm methods of attempting to get what you want. Posting this ridiculous demand along with my personal information in public serves you how? I understand you also visited my wife at our place of business ? Your actions along with your 3 day "beseech-ed" request are very OFFENSIVE to my wife and I both. I work 7 day's a week and do not have time for playing with you. I am 52 Mr Campbell not 15, Your method of pressure along with your attitude REALLY SUCK!!! It is not my fault that you do not play well with others. I have no clue what it is that you are after BUT, If you intend to force me to do something I suggest that you get started. I'm also assuming since you are so smart that you have figured out how to make the same request to anyone that has ever talked about the lake? IE, FaceBook, Topix... Ect... Thank's for the legal advice Mr Campbell. I now have some for you. Get your lawyer busy.... I'll be waiting to hear from the judge!

 Yes, check with an attorney. You don't have to voluntarily give this info without a court order.
